THE AUTOPHONE.

THE AUTOPHONE is a wonderful little instrument, which, while it weighs less than three pounds, has the lungs of a full sized parlor organ, and executes its Music with absolute precision and perfect effect.

It has twenty-two reeds, plays in three keys, and all the parts of most difficult Music.
It is the invention of H. J. HOKTON, who was also the inventor of the first organettes, and this last effort is the result of years of constant attention to the study of this kind of instrument, and in simplicity, accuracy, volume of tone and compactness, is the acme of mechanical and artistic success.

On it, a child can correctly play, without instruction, any of the Music, which at present consists of over 300 selections from Hymns, Oratorios, Operas, Waltzes, Polkas, Marches, Popular Songs, &c. It is best adapted to the kind of Music which suits an organ best, in which chords predominate, but also has wonderful power in executing very lively pieces.

It is entirely well adapted for country churches, Sunday schools, the family circle, and also for dancing.

For use in serenading it is perfect, as it can be carried under the arm.
The Music is compact and far cheaper than that which is made for any organette.

Is like every other good thing, the longer you have it, the better you like it, and as new music is being published every week, it has an endless fund of amusement in it.

PRICE INCLUDING FIVE PIECES OF MUSIC—$7.50.

THE AMERICAN MAIL.

The Occidental and Oriental Steamship Company's steamer Coptic, Captain Kidley, with the American mails of June 17th, arrived in harbour last evening. We take the following items from San Francisco exchanges.

ALEXANDRIA, June 11th.
Serious riots occurred to-day between natives and Europeans, and several persons were killed and wounded, and in addition a number of houses were destroyed. The police at first remained inactive. A riotous demonstration later took place before the French Consulate, to which several of those mortally wounded were carried. Disturbances continued some time before the authorities took any steps to suppress them. The English Consul was severely hurt, receiving a gunshot wound, and the engineer of the British man-of-war Superb was killed. The disturbances continued five hours, when the military appeared and dispersed the rioters. The Greek Consul and Italian Consul were also severely wounded. The British man-of-war Superb will arrive in port during the night and will protect the British Consulate. Boats will be sent to take off all the British subjects who desire to leave Alexandria. It is estimated that twenty persons were killed in the riots, but the exact particulars are not obtainable. The mob sacked the shops of Europeans. The Egyptian troops occupy all points in the city.

LONDON, June 11th.
Another dispatch from Alexandria says:—The Kothne des Soins, inhabited chiefly by Europeans, was completely wrecked. The Europeans fired from their windows, killing many Arabs, and the latter made terrible havoc among the Europeans in the streets. The British Consul was dragged from his carriage and beaten. Derivish Pasha and Arabi Pasha have left Cairo for Alexandria. The engineer of the British man-of-war was stabbed to death. The captain of the British ironclad Invincible is in charge of the English Consulate and another iron corvette is expected at Alexandria.

NEW YORK, June 12th.
The Herald's London special says:—Rumors are circulating among persons acquainted with the inner political circles that serious discussions are in the Cabinet. Sir William Harcourt insists on carrying the Crime Prevention Bill in its most stringent form, and threatens to resign if any concessions calculated to impair the sweeping character of the measure are adopted. Chamberlain and Sir Charles Dilke take an opposite view, declaring that the policy of coercion is a grave political blunder and is certain to fail of producing the desired result. The relations of the members of the Cabinet are becoming daily more and more strained, so that a break-up is regarded among the immediate probabilities. Chamberlain and Charles Dilke are known to be contemplating resignation. Should they finally decide on taking this step, the days of Gladstone's Cabinet would be numbered. An appeal to the country would so change the composition of the House of Commons that a combination of Radicals and Home Rulers would have any ministry at its mercy. Neither Chamberlain nor Sir Charles Dilke have ever spoken in support of the Crime Prevention Bill. Their unbroken silence does not fail to cause serious comment. It is also noted that both in the House and lobbies they maintain a sympathetic and even friendly attitude toward Parnell.

LONDON, June 12th.
The Admiralty has received dispatches confirming the report of the murder of the engineer of the Superb in the fighting at Alexandria. Except a deliberate attack upon the Consul when proceeding to the residence of the Governor, the trouble seems to have been confined to Arabs and Levantines. No English residents are reported wounded. The Times' correspondent at Cairo lays the responsibility for the riots upon Arabi Pasha. Derivish Pasha had summoned him to resign, and there seemed no alternative but submission or defiance. But since the riots broke out Derivish Pasha has to appeal to Arabi Pasha as commanding the only available force to restore order.

DUBLIN, June 12th.
John Barry, a member of Parliament for Westford county, and Vice President of the Home Rule Confederation, will start for America shortly to reconcile the contending sections of Fenians and Land Leaguers, with a view to the increased financial support of Parnell's policy.

LONDON, June 12th.
Gambetta is likely to visit England next week. A telegram published here says that the official report of the riot in Alexandria gives the number of Europeans killed at sixty-seven.

Advices from Alexandria late last night state that the disturbances commenced simultaneously at three different points. The object of the rioters, in a great measure, appears to have been pillage, in which the Levantines, as well as the Arabs, participated. A regiment of cavalry and a regiment of infantry have been ordered to reinforce the garrison.

In the House of Commons, Dilke the Under Foreign Secretary, read telegrams from Alexandria, stating that the Consul is convalescent, and the rioters not of a political character. A dispatch from Alexandria, dated at two o'clock this afternoon, says the town is quiet.

Telegrams from Constantinople and from Malet, Consul-General at Alexandria, reassuring regarding the safety of the Khedive.

CAIRO, June 12th.
At a meeting of the military leaders it was decided to petition the Khedive to abdicate. It was decided that if he did not he would be massacred. It is rumored that the cavalry and artillery will not join any conspiracy against the Khedive.

BERLIN, June 12th.
It is proposed, seemingly at the suggestion of France, to hold a conference on the Egyptian question at Paris, not at Constantinople.

NEW YORK, June 12th.
The Herald's special says:—General Ignatieff wrote this morning to the Emperor for permission to return to office. He is to go to Petrohoff to-morrow to seek a reply. This decision appears to be irrevocable.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 12th.
General Ignatieff, at his own request, has been relieved from the post of Minister of the Interior, on the ground of ill health, and has been appointed President of the Academy and a Member of the Senate. He retains his membership of the Council of the Empire, and his Adjutancy. Count Tolstoy, formerly President of the Academy, has been appointed Minister of the Interior.

MADRID, June 13th.
The Herald's Madrid special says:—The refusal of the Committee of the French Chamber of Deputies to settle the indemnity of $200,000 for the victims of Bon Amens' raid in Syria, in 1881, as agreed on between the two Governments, has caused a general manifestation of distrust and anger against the French Parliament, and the Madrid papers insist upon their Government demanding the absolute execution of the promises of De Freycinet.

PESTH, June 12th.
Disastrous floods have occurred at Vershy. A number of houses and two bridges were destroyed. Twelve children and several adults were drowned.

CAIRO, June 13th.
Cookson, the English Consul at Alexandria, says that when he was proceeding from the great square to the Governor's residence he saw two Europeans, respectively dressed and apparently naval officers in plain clothes, knocked down. A Greek was shot and killed by a soldier five yards from Cookson's carriage, and others even closer were knocked down and stabbed. A soldier was cut at the Consular residence with a sword. The carriage of the Greek Consul was stopped by soldiers, and the occupants dragged out. The Consul was severely beaten. Cookson escaped maltreatment by his coachman lashing his horses, but he was struck on the head and one of his arms broken. The Italian Consul was wounded by a stone. The wife of the Austrian Consul-General was attacked and insulted. A project to carry off the Khedive, Derivish Pasha and the British and French Consuls to the Citadel is freely discussed.

NEW YORK, June 13th.
A cable special from Cairo of the 12th says:—Cairo affairs, since yesterday have taken a decidedly bad turn. The military party and Ulemas are enraged at the treatment of Arabi Pasha, and are themselves by Derivish Pasha, and are firmly persuaded that England intends the annexation of the country. They declare it to be their intention to resist all interference. Arabi expressed to-day a determination to depose Tewfik, making Halim Khedive.

PARIS, June 13th.
In the Chamber of Deputies M. De Freycinet stated that the French Consul at Alexandria had been threatened, and that the Government would not fail to adopt measures necessary to secure the safety of French subjects. Several newspapers here state that France and England have sent a note to the Porte and Powers urging the immediate meeting of the conference. It is reported that the European colonies in Egypt have appealed to their respective Governments to send squadrons for their protection.

VIENNA, June 13th.
The proposition to dispatch men-of-war to Alexandria to protect Austrian subjects is being considered. The Land Post thinks the events in Alexandria render military action instead of mere diplomatic intervention, probable.

ROME, June 13th.
Signor Mancini, Minister of Foreign Affairs, stated that at the beginning of the troubles in Egypt an Italian ironclad was sent to Port Said, and another was prepared to sail for Egyptian waters at a moment's notice. The Government's policy, he said, was to absolutely refuse to assent to armed intervention on the part of certain Powers, to favor a meeting of a conference to restore the Khedive's authority, and if armed intervention should be necessary, to give the preference to Turkish intervention as the lesser evil.

NEW YORK, June 13th.
A Herald special from St. Petersburg says:—General Ignatieff attributes his loss of favor to his hatred of the Jews and of the German party. "I came into office," he continued, "with a programme that would have given Russia 40,000,000 of new land owners, who would naturally have been conservative of the Jews. Russia is so vast that five years are needed to learn what effect reform has had upon the country. I have held power only one year, and my efforts in this direction have probably been in vain. So much the worse. I shall now withdraw my estates at Kieff and take a little rest." The General said that the coronation of the Czar is likely to be postponed till next year, as the Empress desired to spend some months in Denmark and Gatchina. "As regards the nihilists," said the General, "I have succeeded in building all their schemes, but nihilism still exists in a latent state. Constant watchfulness is indispensable." The conversation fell finally on Egypt. Germany, General Ignatieff thinks, will direct the Constantinople conference as she likes. The General's resignation will no doubt step several proposed diplomatic changes.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 13th.
Several Turkish ironclads will embark troops for Egypt if necessary. The Sultan invited the British Ambassador to the Palace to-day, and expressed to him his regret at the affray on Monday in Alexandria, and especially at the slaying of the British Consul and killing the engineer of a British man-of-war.

LONDON, June 13th.
The Times' Cairo special says:—Unless there is an overwhelming Turkish force at Alexandria before Sunday, there will be a worse outbreak than last Sunday. There have been numerous assaults on the Europeans by Arabs in Cairo.

ALEXANDRIA, June 13th.
The Khedive and Derivish Pasha have arrived at the Hazzelne Palace, which can be protected by the guns of the fleet. The Europeans are leaving as fast as they can. The Consul has issued a proclamation exhorting the Europeans to remain tranquil and expressing confidence that the army will be able to maintain order. One hundred persons were killed in the riot of Sunday. The position is a terrible one. Any small force the fleet could land would only suffice to excite the Arabs to a general massacre. The English man-of-war Superb came round to the harbor on Sunday at midnight. The report that she was about to land marines to protect the Consul's residence, and the boats of the Superb were ordered to keep off. The proportion of Arabs killed in the late riot is insignificant. The fleet is almost a source of danger, its presence rousing so many antagonisms.

When the French stationed a vessel opposite their Consulate to receive refugees, she was immediately surrounded by Egyptian steam launches, which remained there, and collision may occur at any moment.

The bodies of several Europeans who were killed on Sunday show bayonet wounds. The Governor visited the quarters looted by rioters and arrested 250 Arabs. Two young men named Catini and Rossi, the former the son of a well-known banker and the latter the son of a prominent lawyer of Cairo, were found dead. The Khedive drove through the Arabian and European quarters to-day without an escort. The army is showing signs of insubordination. The Egyptian troops are accompanied by the Janizaries. The Consuls are authorized to arrest all the Europeans caught firing from the windows at the natives. Among the victims of Sunday's riots are six Englishmen, one German and three Italians.

CAIRO, June 13th.
Last night the officers were greatly exasperated, and the seizure as hostages of the Khedive, Derivish Pasha, and the English and French Consuls-General was decided upon. On the news of this determination becoming known in town a panic ensued, the banks sending their specie away.

Some American missionaries from the interior have arrived. The villages are no longer safe. Arabi expressed hatred of the English Consul, and his willingness to replace Tewfik by Halim indicates a secret French support. There is good reason for believing that the French will stick at nothing to avoid intervention by the Turkish troops.

When the news was received of the fearful riot in Alexandria, there was great excitement in this city.

The Khedive and Derivish Pasha went to Alexandria in obedience to an order from the Sultan. Arabi Pasha rode to the depot in the same carriage with the Khedive. Owing to the sending of reinforcements to Alexandria only twenty cavalrymen and half a regiment of infantry are left in Cairo. The work of exciting the population is complete. Papers have been distributed among the populace summoning them to be ready at any minute. The Italian Consul has given notice for all Italians to quit the country.

LONDON, June 13th.
The greatest excitement was caused in Madrid by the intelligence from Egypt. The Spanish Government and politicians of every shade fear complications between France and the North African Mohammedan States even more than intervention in Egypt or disturbances affecting the Suez Canal, which is Spain's highway to her possessions in Cuba and South America.

MADRID, June 13th.
In the House of Commons this afternoon Dilke, Under Foreign Secretary, stated that the Government has informed Malet, the British Consul-General in Egypt, that they think his place is with the Khedive at Alexandria. He supposed that if the Consuls went to Alexandria a number of Europeans would go there. He declared that the present anxiety in Egypt would not be allowed to continue. The garrison at Alexandria has been increased by 12,000 men. On the outbreak of the riot Admiral Seymour made preparations to land a large body of marines, and telegraphed to Malet for leave to do so. The latter, however, refused after conferring with the Consuls. The purpose of Derivish Pasha and the Khedive in going to Alexandria is to check any further outbreak and to obviate the necessity for the landing of marines. Egyptian united securities have fallen 2 per cent within an hour on reports of further trouble.

MARSEILLES, June 13th.
The Mediterranean squadron is ordered to be ready to proceed to Alexandria.

MONTREAL, June 13th.
A terrible fire broke out last night in Clendenning's block, Victoria square. It originated in Miller's bookbindery and extended to the premises of Greenshield Sons & Co., dry goods, McIntyre & French, dry goods, and Clendenning's, stores. The losses are: Miller, $150,000; Greenshield, $250,000; McIntyre & Co., $400,000; Clendenning's bookbinding and stock, $550,000. All are insured in leading English and Canadian offices for three-fourths of the value. At 12:50 o'clock the fire raged as fiercely as ever. The water power at the beginning was not sufficient to cover the upper stories of the buildings where the flames had the strongest hold. Three steam engines, all the city contains, seem useless in conquering the fire. From all appearance the whole block will be destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 13th.
The Czar has approved the resolution of the Imperial Council in favour of the foundation of a bank for the purpose of facilitating the acquisition of land by peasants.

LONDON, June 13th.
The retirement of General Ignatieff from the Russian Ministry caused satisfaction in Berlin and Vienna, and Russian funds rose on the London Stock Exchange. The appointment of Count Tolstoy is not, however, considered as any special concession to the European Powers, as he represents the orthodox Russians, although he has not General Ignatieff's extreme antipathy to the Germans. Ignatieff goes abroad, where he will remain some time.

VIENNA, June 13th.
Doubtful Russian Ambassador to Austria-Hungary, has been recalled.

LONDON, June 13th.
The Prince of Wales, the Duke of Edinburgh, the Duke of Albany and nearly all the members of the Government voted with the minority in the House of Lords yesterday on the motion to order the bill legalizing marriage with a deceased wife's sister, to its second reading. The bulk of the Conservatives and all the bishops voted with the majority.

The fifth and sixth clauses of the Repression bill were adopted. A brother of Bourke, who was assassinated in Galway, claims £10,000 compensation. The News prints reports showing the crop condition of France, Germany and Holland to be highly favorable. Opportune rains revivify progress in Russia. Cold weather in England checks vegetation.

MADRID, June 13th.
The Minister of Foreign Affairs to-day declared in Congress that he would insist upon the payment of the indemnity proposed by France to the Spanish colonists in Oran, and that he would not admit the claims of the French subjects in Cuba.

PARIS, June 13th.
In the Chamber of Deputies the bill establishing a divorce law passed its second reading by a vote of 344 to 14. The Budget Committee rejected the grant for the maintenance of an embassy at the Vatican.

ALEXANDRIA, June 14th.
The bodies of the engineer of the English ironclad Superb and two seamen of the Helicon, killed in the riot of Sunday, have been buried at sea, as it was deemed imprudent to risk the danger that might have arisen from a funeral on shore. As the barge containing the bodies passed up, the steamers Gulna and Margut fired a salute, and all on board uncovered their heads. The Prefect of Police in Alexandria, with the assistance of a fanatic orator, organized the outbreak, the soldiers setting the example of sacking the shops. Many of the dead were killed by bayonet.

The Khedive arrived from Cairo yesterday afternoon. He was cordially received by the populace. He expressed himself as greatly astonished at the agitation and excitement throughout the city. The natives declare that they will resist any intervention, Turkish or otherwise. There were patrols throughout the city last night, and soldiers were placed at every fifty yards.
